on personal inspection of the articles, the Dy Comr ordered the cloths to be sold by auction & a sum of Rs 29-12-0 realised thereby is reported to have been kept in Rev Deposit. With regard to the jewels, he ordered the petty articles to be melted & converted into bars and got an estimate (for Rs 33/-) prepared for repairing the other jewels The estimated cost viz Rs 33/- of repairing the jewels includes an item of Rs 13/- on account of the value of gold required and only Rs 20/- in cash, will be needed So the Dy Comr solicits sanction to have the jewels repaired by utilising the sum of Rs 29-12-0 in the Rev Deposit and also the gold & silver bars (obtained by melting the petty jewelry), if necessary

2) It is ~~however~~ Submitted that the usual & more regular procedure seems to be to credit all the money realised by sale &c to the ~~Credit~~ funds of the institutions Concerned in the first instance and then get the jewels repaired by means of estimates & bills &c ~~to be met~~ the cost being met from the respective temple funds. Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Sub Divisional officer of Nanjangud Division recommended in his yadast No 116/347 dated 13-11-11 that the cloths and jewels mentioned in the list filed with with the accompanying records and belonging to the Sri Parvatha-amma temple at Kandagal and Sri Kumara Gopalaswamy temple on the hill in Gauribidanur Taluk may be sold by public auction as they were unfit for use. He was therefore requested to send them to this office.

2 On receipt of the cloths and jewels, I inspected them on 17 4 1912 and found that the cloths were unfit for use. They were therefore ordered to be sold by public auction and

and the sale proceeds viz Rs 29-12-0 are kept in Revenue Deposits The petty silver and gold articles such as cradle, figures etc were ordered to be melted and converted into bars and these as well as the other jewels are kept in the District Treasury.
3 With a view to have an idea of the probable cost of repairing the jewels, I requested the Treasury officer to send up an estimate and he has accordingly sent a rough one amounting to

to Rs 33/- including the value of gold viz Rs 13/- required for repairing the pearl necklace The jewels are capable of being repaired and the cost is not prohibitive. I therefore solicit permission to utilise the amount realised by the sale of the cloths viz: Rs 29-12-0 and the gold and silver bars if necessary.

4 On receipt of Government sanction, the Treasury Officer will be requested to have the jewels repaired ~~under~~ the personal supervision and to submit a bill of actual Co-st.

5 A final report will also be submitted to Govern: ment after the repairs are Completed
